

FIDELITY INTERNATIONAL RECEIVE 6 FUND ACCOLADES IN THE LIPPER FUND AWARDS 2008

- Awards received over 3, 5 and 10 year periods

London, 10 March 2008 – Fidelity International has been awarded 6 separate fund awards in Lipper's 2008 UK Fund Awards.

The Lipper awards are presented each year and take into account 36, 60, and 120 months of performance. The winners are then decided by looking at the highest Lipper Leader for consistent return within each eligible classification. This then determines the fund classification winner over 3, 5, or 10 years.

Fidelity International was awarded best funds for:

- Fidelity South East Asia Fund – 3 years
- Fidelity Extra Income Fund – 5 years
- Fidelity Extra Income Fund – 5 years
- FF Pacific Fund – 5 and 10 years
- Fidelity European Fund – 10 years
- Fidelity American Fund – 10 years

Michael Jones, Head of Financial Institutions at Fidelity International, comments: "We are delighted to have won such an extensive range of awards and to have received this kind of recognition from Lipper. To have won six separate fund awards across a number of asset classes is a true accolade to our fund managers and our analysts. We consistently strive for our funds to have consistent good performance for our clients and these awards are recognition of our efforts."
