Until valid documents have been received, restrictions have been placed on the account(s) and further investment will not be possible. If you send an instruction to sell from the holdings, the sell deal will be placed but we will be unable to release the proceeds until we have received the documents requested. In case of a joint account, restrictions have been placed and will prevent any holder from transacting on the account until the identity of every holder has been confirmed.

Please note we can only accept original or clearly certified copies of the original documents. If you choose to send in certified copies, please ensure that independent certification is obtained as detailed below:

Fidelity Account Number (if applicable)

LIST OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIERS
